run rabbit junk vocal: RZA, words: The Jazmyn, music: Yoko Kaseki

With a cop goin' downtown need backup now, you know why?
I like talkin' 'bout weather car two, callin' car two got a fight dope an' wild ice callin' cars a jump to nowhere up, down take me downtown copy that I'm over and out another never
another never
another never
hey you so how's your mother? some oh, some oh

What's the are you dumb, sir?
move, move
are you done, sir?
you're makin' me
read enough, sir
boom, boom
ain't no dance you're lookin' me
are you dumb, sir?
move, move
are you done, sir?
you're makin' me
read enough, sir
boom, boom
you are done, sir

Party time at seven and vine everybody's setting up to breakdown hey you, dance a no dance you do low-fi you shoutin' lowfars pretty girls who run about rabbit soft a dime for some dare voodoo a little bit of mars uptown callin' all cars repeat 2 times

where does this ocean go?

vocal: RZA, lyrics: RZA, music: Yoko Kaseki

IDEAL WC

all day the city's calling something sheep, the boy people spinning round dixie if they go back home to somewhere and toxin me to say "baby, want a ride? I'll take you there" "transportation, just tell me where" the north makes shadows an' darkness is fading back, but he can't know he's gonna be the question hey this is like no other where does this ocean go?

oh baby, a winter for me finally, came to me had had that winter he was a car he knew a ride now sleepin' on a beach together a woman waits by herself, telling heaven "please buy time, so I can help my daughter, tell you" the man with police syndrome is standing in a mirror "hey what is this a place?" he heard him like a woman he heard him like a man that stops to blow his nose day is filled with noise the buildings, that electric and street cars as you want answers to the questions are there, like no other where does the ocean go?

I really need to know why this is like no other if I don't let you see it where does the ocean go?

velveteen

vocal: RZA, lyrics: RZA, music: Yoko Kaseki writing you in my tears in my own reflection I hear you in the wind that passes through me feel you in my hunger you're haunting my condition beautifully destructive attraction climbed to stars & a now falling like a rock drugged and digitized you inside a dream

The red girl we... make the inspire If only this electric summer sings to tell us I'm inside the Nana dissonance di conchito unconcrete & infinite women I child, and what passion.

a velveteen equation

I find you in my tears and in my fascination I came you in safe winter and it drew me paranoid and peaceful inside a sweet addiction velocity electrical reaction soft insanity and I can't make it stop love hallucination within a dream

sings to tell us I'm inside the Nana dissonance di conchito
child, and what passion.*

*inspire, inspire, and grounds women

lithium flower vocal: Scott Matthews, words: Tenacious, music: Yoko Kaseki she's so cold and barren it's something humans do she's so golden solo she's so number nine she's incredible right just incredible right and is she really human? she's just so something new a waking lithium flower just about to bloom I smell lithium now smiling lithium now

how is she when she doesn't surf?
how is she when she doesn't surf?
I wonder what she does when she wakes up? when she wakes up so motorol an' calm so all on a line she's so good

she's so good
she's so good
so some wave yeah, she's so groovy, yeah she's so groovy, yeah

upset, where did she learn how to surf?
you know I've never seen the girl wipe out how does she so perfectly surf?

I wonder what she does when she wakes up?

I wanna go surfing with her
I wanna go surfing with her

inner universe music: John Zorn / Stone Eyes / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei

Ангелы и демоны кричали надо мной Разбегаюсь вперёд и в задний путь He turnet i' t'heret toward you Oro oro oro, o'oro, o'oro, o'oro

I am calling calling now, Spirits rise and falling Gobai o'tatya d'olam
Calling calling, in the depth of longing
Gobai o'tatya d'olam

Stand alone— Where was he when it had a meaning Stand alone— Nothing but a shadow and—

—Бесконечный свет
Пока жажда и боль охватили лезть не даст He разучится мечтать— мечтать—
—Бесконечный свет—

Calling calling, for the pain of knowing There's more than what can be heard Calling calling, Never will I look away For what life has left for me You're gone, for what's left of living

Gobai o'tatya d'olam
Calling calling now, Spirits rise and falling Gobai o'tatya d'olam
Calling calling, in the depth of longing
Gobai o'tatya d'olam

beauty is with in us

music: John Zorn / Stone Eyes / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei

O mother dear
Look what you've done
To your forlorn and once beloved son Why were I born at all?
O mother dear
I'm such a freak
A mutant man, a woman underneath
Why were I born at all?

It's you I blame for all the shame This anguish swirls up in my mind The mirror turned against the wall My self despised, forsaken

You say, "Beauty is within us, your mother knows"
There's a beauty that's within us, just like a rose
You say, "Beauty is within us, so let it grow" But it's grown so dark and ugly

O mother dear
I curse you so
For breathing life into your wretched son Why were you born at all?
O mother dear
I love you so
O please forgive this anger in my soul Without you I'm alone

It's me who's been eternally damned Trapped inside this cage, a caged man All damaged and depraved

O mother dear
This misery
Has settled like a stain upon my skin —A vast canyon sin

And my mistake is much too late But your mistake was trusting That out of grief, a goodness comes And here comes son of hating

You say, "Beauty is within us, your mother knows"
There's a beauty that's within us, just like a rose
You say, "Beauty is within us, so let it grow"
But it's grown so dark I can not see you anymore

"O beauty is within us, mother knows"
"O beauty is within us, like a rose"
"O beauty is within us, let it grow" O mother dear, let me out of here!

monochrome

music: John Zorn / Stone Eyes / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei / music: Taka Kamei where all the colors are lost

In a world where colors are lost
You say
I can't lose the color fully wouldn't it be a risk if I do?
I can't lose the color fully
I can't lose the color fully
I can't lose the color fully

can you find might be why colors disappear

The place we call our soul

The cyber screen sees your dream your fantasy nothing stays the same tomorrow

I hope you will wake up feeling as magnificent who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion

can you see colors that he never will be can you be something more than black white and gray living in monochrome

who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion
who taught you emotion

I'm a soldier, я солдат и отстану я с поля Я стою на двух конусах огня из огня выхожу, обгоняя смерть, я нинзя я бегу, сражаюсь с тобой, лям Сколько в нитях на плечах обман покажет нам света истина

Save your tears
for the day when our pain is far behind on your feet come with me we are soldiers stand or die

Save your tears
take your place save them for the judgement day lest and try follow me time to make the sacrifice we rise or fall
