If You

Open the door
To a room I've never been before
Counting all the books I've read so long
Something is wrong
Where love has gone

If I should cry
Thinking of the love I felt inside
Don't misunderstand
nothing's the clue
I cry for you
Cause of love its true

When does love
Speak words above evolving pain
Like if these tears turn to rain
Endlessly calms the sea
For you and me

If your so cold
If worlds just hold
If want to lean
I'm here for you
If you

When does love
Create the worlds above our pain
Like if these tears were to rain
Endlessly for the sea
Still you and me

If your so cold
If worlds just hold
If were to lean
I'm here for you
So if you

Close the door
Cause those rooms won't need us anymore
Holding our words
just fill those books
Sometimes love looks
Like if love has gone

So I won't cry
Now I know our love will never die
If I understand the reasons why
When you... if I and you...
Know that love is true

LOVE

If you find a way to love
Can we see and stay to love

In a sign called countless Sketch the keys to you
Reaching for a post
Where one loves the most

As we learn in different ways
Free so dreams come true
Searching for a style
Care without denial

What we say despite of love
Collide into self retreat
Can't we see that love can be
Something so precious
To cherish and hold and then

In so many ways to love
If we realize its love
In so many ways to love

If you see right to love
So far to reach to love
Can't you see that love can be

All so many ways of love
Can we compromise true love
It's those funny things in love
In our only way we love

* Our love so precious
True love is to cherish

* repeat
